DAN SMOOT

VOTING RECORDS, 1962

United States Representative Otto Passman (Democrat, Louisiana), justifying a 1 billion dollar reduction in foreign aid appropriations, said:

"We are substituting a check book for a foreign policy. I believe we are spending this nation into destruction."

President Kennedy, urging public pressure on Congress to grant all foreign aid requested, said:

"If we stop helping them [underdeveloped countries], they will become ripe for internal subversion and a communist takeover."(1)

On the day the President made this statement (September 23, 1962), a well-informed investigator, who has been an expert in intelligence work in Washington for more than twenty years, reported to me about 2000 colored troops from Ghana, now training in Cuba.

These troops have already been given basic training in communist guerilla tactics and have been taught to speak French.

The basic training was given in Ghana, financed with American foreign aid money granted to Kwame Nkrumah, pro-communist Prime Minister of Ghana.

Their eventual mission is a guerilla assault on the French-speaking negro republic of Haiti. Their final training in Cuba consists largely of familiarizing them with the terrain and climate they will encounter in Haiti. This final phase of their training will also be financed (at least, in part and indirectly) with United States tax money, because we are still giving aid to Cuba through Paul Hoffman's Special United Nations Fund for Economic Development; and because, by paying more than our assessment in the United Nations, we are paying Cuba's United Nations bills (as well as the UN bills of other communist countries).(2)

The negro republic of Haiti is on the island of Hispaniola, about 75 miles off the southeastern tip of Cuba. The ocean channel between Hispaniola and Cuba is known as the Windward Passage — from the Atlantic into the Caribbean Sea. Haiti occupies about one-third of Hispaniola. The other two-thirds is the Dominican Republic — whose government under Trujillo was the staunchest friend of the United States in the whole Caribbean area.

Under pressure from Romulo Betancourt (communist President of Venezuela),[3] we broke diplomatic relations with Trujillo, stopped our aid to his government, and isolated him from all other nations in this hemisphere. Trujillo was assassinated, and chaos ensued in the Dominican Republic. Communist activity there (financed, at least in part, by Betancourt out of foreign aid money obtained from the United States) is rapidly preparing the Dominican Republic for communist conquest.

The communist assault on Haiti, with negro troops from Ghana, will probably be timed to coincide with the communist takeover in the Dominican Republic. If both actions succeed, the entire island of Hispaniola will be in communist hands. With both Cuba and Hispaniola communist controlled and with Venezuela controlled by communist Betancourt, the Caribbean Sea will become virtually a communist lake — dominating Atlantic approaches to the Panama Canal.

This communist operation in the Caribbean has been (and is being) financed, in part, with money taken out of the paychecks of United States citizens for the ostensible purpose of "fighting" communism.

The same thing is happening in the African Congo: United States tax money (taken away from the people under the pretense that it would be used to fight communism) has financed at least 47% of the United Nations war against Katanga — an anti-communist state which is striving for independence from the pro-communist Congo Republic.

The United Nations war for communism in the Congo was so expensive, that, despite heavy contributions from the United States, the UN was in deep financial trouble by late 1961. UN officials announced that if the UN could not raise 200 million dollars (above its routine income, and above the voluntary contributions from the United States), the UN would be bankrupt. The UN proposed to raise the money by "selling" a 200-million-dollar issue of worthless bonds to member nations.

On January 30, 1962, President Kennedy asked Congress to authorize purchase of half of the total UN bond issue.

Administration argument for this extra 100-million-dollar gift to the UN was that the money was necessary to "fight communism" in the Congo! On April 5, 1962, the Senate "authorized" the President to give the UN the 100 million dollars on any terms the President pleased. On September 14, 1962, the House passed the legislation.

The Senate vote on the UN bond issue was recorded in this Report, April 23, 1962. The House vote is tabulated in the "UN" column under "House," below. Any Senator or Representative who voted for this UN loan should be retired from Congress. If he actually thinks the money will be used to fight communism, he is ignorant or stupid.

On September 19, 1962, the Senate passed the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 — the most dangerous piece of legislation of the session.[4] The House passed this act June 28, 1962. The vote was recorded in this Report, July 9, 1962. The Senate vote is recorded in the "TEA" column under "Senate," below.

Congress Holds The Key

American constitutionalists are dismayed by Kennedy's contempt for the Constitution; by his arrogant abuse of power to drive his programs through Congress and force them upon the country; by the continued use of American tax money to finance socialist-communist programs all over the world, under the pretense of fighting communism; by the announced plans to surrender the armed forces of this nation to United Nations control; by the well-advanced scheme, through the trade expansion program, to surrender control of the economy of this nation to international agencies.

There has even been some demand that the President be impeached for violating his oath to defend the Constitution.

But it is Congress which "authorizes" the President's programs and confiscates our tax money to pay for them. If we had a Congress dedicated to American constitutional principles, Congress would, in one session, halt the Administration programs for United States surrender and bankruptcy.

The ratings tabulated in this Report reveal a frightening condition, which voters must correct, if we are to save our Republic. The percentages in the listings which follow are the conservative ratings which the legislators earned by their roll-call votes on the key issues which have been tabulated in this Report during 1962: 100% being a perfect conservative rating.

Record Of The 87th Congress

The ratings in this Report are based on roll-call votes in 1962, during the Second Session of the 87th Congress. Two of the roll calls are tabulated in this issue. All other roll calls used in arriving at the ratings were tabulated and discussed in previous issues.

In the October 30, 1961, issue of this Report, "Representation or Misrepresentation?" we published the ratings of all United States Senators and Representatives, based on their roll-call votes in 1961, during the First Session of the 87th Congress.

We can send you a package of six Reports which will give: (1) the tabulation of roll-call votes for all United States Representatives and Senators in 1962; (2) discussion of all issues on which the 1962 votes were taken; (3) a percentage rating of all U.S. legislators for the Second Session of the 87th Congress (1962); and (4) a percentage rating of all U.S. legislators for the First Session (1961).

The package is $1.00. Ask for the Package of 6 Reports on voting tabulations and ratings — or specify them as follows:

October 30, 1961, issue, "Representation or Misrepresentation?"

March 5, 1962, issue, "Urban Affairs Controversy"

April 23, 1962, issue, "Vital Votes in Congress"

July 9, 1962, issue, "Congress or Dictator's Assembly?"

September 24, 1962, issue, "When The Roll Is Called"

Oct. 1, 1962, issue, "Voting Records, 1962"

VOTING RECORDS

The capital letter in parentheses after each legislator's name indicates his party. The "%" column shows his conservative percentage rating. The "C" column shows the number of conservative votes. The "L" column shows the number of liberal votes. The NV column shows the number of times he did not vote.

Under "Senate," the "TEA" column shows each Senator's stand on the Trade Expansion Act--a "C" indicating a vote against; an "L," a vote for; an "O," no vote.

Under "House," the "UN" column shows each Representative's stand on the UN Bond issue: a "C" indicating a vote against; an "L," for; an "O," no vote.

WHO IS DAN SMOOT?

Dan Smoot was born in Missouri. Reared in Texas, he attended SMU in Dallas, taking BA and MA degrees from that university in 1938 and 1940.

In 1941, he joined the faculty at Harvard as a Teaching Fellow in English, doing graduate work for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the field of American Civilization.

In 1942, he took leave of absence from Harvard in order to join the FBI. At the close of the war, he stayed in the FBI, rather than return to Harvard.

He worked as an FBI Agent in all parts of the nation, handling all kinds of assignments. But for three and a half years, he worked exclusively on communist investigations in the industrial midwest. For two years following that, he was on FBI headquarters staff in Washington, as an Administrative Assistant to J. Edgar Hoover.

After nine and a half years in the FBI, Smoot resigned to help start the Facts Forum movement in Dallas. As the radio and television commentator for Facts Forum, Smoot, for almost four years spoke to a national audience giving both sides of great controversial issues.

In July, 1955, he resigned and started his own independent program, in order to give only one side — the side that uses fundamental American principles as a yardstick for measuring all important issues.

If you believe that Dan Smoot is providing effective tools for those who want to think and talk and write on the side of freedom, you can help immensely by subscribing, and encouraging others to subscribe, to The Dan Smoot Report.
